1. Since 1 January 1952, the Military District Sector Command in Sibenik has been calling up all reservists in the area in order to enter in their passbooks the destinations to which they must report in the event of emergency. In general, the majority of reservists are being assigned emergency stations at Knin, Subicevac and Zirje Island. The Military District Sector Command in Sibenik also has jurisdiction over the construction of public and private shelters for the civilian defense of the area.
2. Reservists in the Karlovac area have also been ordered to report to the Military District Sector headquarters in that city since 1 January 1952, for the assignment of emergency stations.
